

SUCAMPO PHARMACEUTICALS, INC.
RELATED PERSON TRANSACTIONS POLICY

The Company's Code of Conduct provides that employees, executive officers and directors must avoid situations in which such employee, executive officer or director could be, or appear to be, unduly influenced by factors which may prevent him or her from acting in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. Transactions involving an insider, in which the Company is also a participant, may present actual or potential conflicts of interests or even create the appearance of a conflict. However, whether or not a conflict exists is often unclear and, in many circumstances, transactions with related persons may, on the balance, be beneficial to the Company and its stockholders. While the Code of Conduct addresses these matters generally, the Board has adopted this Related Person Transactions Policy to set forth the policies and procedures for the review and approval or ratification of Related Person Transactions (as defined below). In addition, under applicable Securities Exchange Commission ("SEC") rules, the Company is required to disclose related person transactions as defined in the SEC's rules.

1. Definitions

For the purposes of this Policy, a "Related Person" is:

- a. any person who is or was an executive officer, director, or director nominee of the Company at any time since the beginning of the Company's last fiscal year;
- b. a person who is or was an Immediate Family Member of an executive officer, director, director nominee at any time since the beginning of the Company's last fiscal year;
- c. any person who, at the time of the occurrence or existence of the transaction, is the beneficial owner of more than 5% of any class of the Company's voting securities (a "Significant Stockholder");
- d. any person who, at the time of the occurrence or existence of the transaction, is an Immediate Family Member of a Significant Stockholder of the Company; or
- e. any firm, corporation or other entity in which any of the foregoing persons is an executive, partner or principal or similar control position or in which such person directly or indirectly has a 5% or greater equity interest.

An "Immediate Family Member" of a person is any child, stepchild, parent, stepparent, spouse, sibling, mother-in-law, father-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law or sister-in-law of such person, or any other person sharing the household of such person, other than a tenant or employee.

A "Related Person Transaction" is any transaction, arrangement or relationship, or any series of similar transactions, arrangements or relationships in which the Company was or is to be a participant, and a Related Person had or will have a direct or indirect material interest. Except as otherwise set forth in this policy, “Related Person Transaction” specifically includes, without limitation, purchases of goods or services by or from the Related Person or entities in which the Related Person has a material interest, indebtedness, guarantees of indebtedness, and employment by the Company of a Related Person. The Board of Directors has determined that the following do not create a material direct or indirect interest on behalf of the Related Person, and are, therefore, not “Related Person Transactions” for purposes of this Policy:

- Interests arising solely from the ownership of a class of the Company’s equity securities if all holders of that class of equity securities receive the same benefit on a pro rata basis; or
- A transaction that involves compensation to an executive officer if the compensation has been approved, or recommended to the Board of Directors for approval, by the Compensation Committee of the Board or a group of independent directors of the Company performing a similar function; or
- A transaction that involves compensation to a director for services as a director of the Company if such compensation will be reported pursuant to Item 402(k) of Regulation S-K; or
- A transaction that is specifically contemplated by provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws of the Company; or
- A transaction where the rates or charges involved in the transaction are determined by competitive bids; or
- A transaction that involves the rendering of services as a common or contract carrier or public utility at rates or charges fixed in conformity with law or governmental authority; or
- A transaction that involves services as a bank depositary of funds, transfer agent, registrar, trustee under a trust indenture, or similar services.

2. Policies and Procedures for Review, Approval or Ratification of Related Person Transactions

Any Related Person Transaction proposed to be entered into by the Company must be reported to the Chief Financial Officer and shall be reviewed and approved by the Audit Committee of the Board (the “Committee”) in accordance with the terms of this Policy, prior to effectiveness or consummation of the transaction, whenever practicable. If the Chief Financial Officer determines that advance approval of a Related Person Transaction is not practicable under the circumstances, the Committee shall review and, in its discretion, may ratify the Related Person Transaction at the next meeting of the Committee, or at the next meeting following the date that the Related Person Transaction comes to the attention of the Chief Financial Officer; provided, however, that the Chief Financial Officer may present a Related Person Transaction arising in the time period between meetings of the Committee to the Chair of the Committee, who shall review and may approve the Related Person Transaction, subject to ratification by the Committee at the next meeting of the Committee.

In addition, any Related Person Transaction previously approved by the Committee or otherwise already existing that is ongoing in nature shall be reviewed by the Committee annually to ensure that such Related Person Transaction has been conducted in accordance with the previous approval granted by the Committee, if any, and that all required disclosures regarding the Related Person Transaction are made.

Transactions involving compensation of executive officers shall be reviewed and approved by the Compensation Committee in the manner specified in the charter of the Compensation Committee. The Company shall not make personal loans to its executive officers or directors.

3. Standards for Review, Approval or Ratification of Related Person Transactions

A Related Person Transaction reviewed under this Policy will be considered approved or ratified if it is authorized by the Committee in accordance with the standards set forth in this Policy after full disclosure of the Related Person's interests in the transaction. As appropriate for the circumstances, the Committee shall review and consider:

- the Related Person's interest in the Related Person Transaction;
- the approximate dollar value of the amount involved in the Related Person Transaction;
- the approximate dollar value of the amount of the Related Person's interest in the transaction without regard to the amount of any profit or loss;
- whether the transaction was undertaken in the ordinary course of business of the Company;
- whether the transaction with the Related Person is proposed to be, or was, entered into on terms no less favorable to the Company than terms that could have been reached with an unrelated third party;
- the purpose of, and the potential benefits to the Company of, the transaction; and
- any other information regarding the Related Person Transaction or the Related Person in the context of the proposed transaction that would be material to investors in light of the circumstances of the particular transaction.

The Committee will review all relevant information available to it about the Related Person Transaction. The Committee shall consider all the facts and circumstances deemed relevant by and available to the Committee, including, but not limited to (a) the risks, costs and benefits to the Company, (b) the impact on a director's independence in the event the Related Person is a director, immediate family member of a director or an entity with which a director is affiliated,

(c) the terms of the transaction, (d) the availability of other sources of comparable services or products and (e) the terms available to or from, as the case may be, unrelated third parties. The Committee may approve or ratify the Related Person Transaction only if the Committee determines that, under all of the circumstances, the transaction is in, or is not inconsistent with, the best interests of the Company. The Committee may, in its sole discretion, impose such conditions as it deems appropriate on the Company or the Related Person in connection with approval of the Related Person Transaction.

The review, approval or ratification of a transaction, arrangement or relationship pursuant to this Policy does not necessarily imply that such transaction, arrangement or relationship is required to be disclosed under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.
