Item 8.01 Other Events.

On May 6, 2010 Questcor Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the "Company") announced the results of the meeting of the Advisory Committee for Peripheral and Central Nervous System Drugs (the "Advisory Committee") of the U.S. Food and Drug Administration, (the "FDA") relating to the proposed indication of H.P. Acthar® Gel (repository corticotropin injection) for the treatment of infantile spasms ("IS"). The Advisory Committee voted on a series of specific questions posed by the FDA to the Advisory Committee. Specifically, the Advisory Committee voted 22 to 1 that the Company has provided substantial evidence of effectiveness for H.P. Acthar® Gel as a treatment for patients with IS and voted 16 to 7 that the Company has submitted evidence to support its view that a two-week course of treatment with H.P. Acthar® Gel followed by a two-week tapering regimen provides sustained effectiveness. The Advisory Committee also voted 12 to 10 (with one abstention) that the Company has not provided evidence that adverse effects caused by H.P. Acthar® Gel are manageable and reversible. In addition, the Advisory Committee voted 20 to 1 (with two abstentions) that the Company has submitted sufficient evidence of the safety of H.P. Acthar® Gel at an effective dosing regimen.

The votes of the Advisory Committee will be considered by the FDA as it completes its review of the Company's sNDA for H.P. Acthar® Gel. The FDA has set the user fee goal date ("PDUFA") of June 11, 2010 for this sNDA. There can be no assurance that the FDA will approve the Company's sNDA by the PDUFA date or at all.

The Company will host a conference call and webcast to discuss the results of the FDA Advisory Committee meeting on Monday, May 10, 2010 at 4:30 p.m. Eastern / 1:30 p.m. Pacific.
